DIRECTOR

Bobbi L'Huillier

Steel Magnolias has been a labor of love and a lesson in how we connect with one another. These connections are not always easy, but their power lies in how they endure. Humor here is a shared language—sometimes gentle, sometimes pointed, but always rooted in care for one another. This cast and crew has shown us so much love. We want to thank everyone for the collaboration, for their time, energy, and willingness to shout, “Yes, chef!” And we hope you love these women as much as we do. The ladies at Truvy’s tell us, “Life goes on!” But they show us how much sweeter life is with good friends by your side.

Chasity Johnson

Shelby Eatenton-Latcherie

Chasity Johnson is thrilled to return to the stage with Little Theatre of Watertown after making her theatrical debut in February, where she played three roles in the “Check Please” trilogy. Now, she is honored to take on her first lead role as Shelby in Steel Magnolias. Raised among strong Southern women in Alabama, Chasity feels deeply connected to this iconic story of love, resilience, and community and all of the wonderful women working along side her. Additionally, Chasity extends heartfelt gratitude to her partner, Thomas, for his unwavering support, unconditional love, and for selflessly contributing his time to the stage crew.

Kaitlyn Lee

Truvy Jones

This is Kaitlyn Lee's third show with Little Theatre of Watertown. She previously appeared in Ken Ludwig's Baskerville: A Sherlock Holmes Mystery and, most recently, as Girl in the "Check Please" trilogy. She is so excited to be working with this amazing group of people, and grateful for the chance to bond with old friends and new. A special thank you goes out to her family, who have always supported her love of theater.

Jean Marshall
Ousier Boudreaux

“Don't try to get on my good side; I no longer have one.” That's Ouiser talking. Jean Marshall would say she is over the moon to be trusted with this role. Jean has performed in *M*A*S*H* and A Christmas Carol with Little Theatre of Watertown. She has assisted with costumes and spotlight for Stage Notes. She has also performed in shows with Carthage Little Theatre and Watertown Lyric Theater. Thank you to Bobbi, Ian, and the strong women of Steel Magnolias.

Jessie Patterson

M'Lynn Eaton

Jessie Patterson is honored to appear as M'Lynn in Steel Magnolias. She has been performing with Little Theatre of Watertown since 2018 and is a recipient of a Theatre Association of New York State (TANYS) Meritorious Achievement Award for Acting. Some of her favorite past roles include Daisy Buchanan in The Great Gatsby: A Live Radio Play and Amy March in Little Women. Jessie loves the way theater brings people together to tell honest, human stories, and she is grateful to share this one with such a wonderful cast and community. She would like to thank her kids, Riley and Lucas, and her partner Liam for their constant love, patience, and support.

Ericka Smith

Annelle Dupuy-DeSoto

Ericka Smith is excited to be making her debut with Little Theatre of Watertown in Steel Magnolias. Originally from Atlanta, Georgia, she is thrilled to return to the stage after some time away and explore her love for storytelling and performance. Ericka is grateful for the opportunity to step outside of her comfort zone and share this experience with such a talented cast and community.

Nicole Toskin
Clairee Belcher

Nicole Toskin is thrilled to return to the stage after a fifteen-year hiatus. She is excited to get back into the art of telling good stories. The cast and crew have enjoyed working with her throughout this production and hope that she will continue to share her many talents with our local community theater organizations in Watertown and the surrounding area.

AUDITIONS

June 23, 24 & 25

Carthage Free Library
412 Budd Street
Carthage NY 13619

Samuel French, in cooperation with the Thornton Wilder Family, is pleased to release the playwright's definitive version of Our Town.

This edition of the play differs only slightly from previous acting editions, yet it presents Our Town as Thornton Wilder wished it to be performed. Described by Edward Albee as "the greatest American play ever written," Our Town presents the small town of Grover's Corners in three acts. Narrated by a stage manager and performed with minimal props and sets, the play depicts the simple daily lives of the Webb and Gibbs families as their children fall in love, marry, and eventually – in one of the most famous scenes in American theatre – die.

Thornton Wilder's final word on how he wanted his play performed is an invaluable addition to the American stage and to the libraries of theatre lovers internationally.

The image features a white background with a decorative border of magnolia flowers. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with colors ranging from light pink to deep magenta. Some flowers are fully open, showing their large, overlapping petals and dark centers, while others are still in bud form. The branches are dark and thin, with small green leaves interspersed among the flowers. The overall composition is elegant and artistic.
