

Little Theatre of Watertown presents:

Alice in Wonderland

Adapted by Willard Sims

At Sackets Harbor Ballroom
November 19 & 20, 2022

Alice In Wonderland

By Willard Sims

Directed by

Jessie Patterson and Lindsey Oakes

Children have always been fascinated by Alice's strange and exciting adventures in Wonderland. Now they can actually join Alice in her travels.

In this remarkable adaptation of the Lewis Carroll classic, Willard Simms has created a Wonderland especially made for children.

The audience becomes a part of the forest through which Alice travels; they join her at the Mad Hatter's tea party, and even take part in that memorable croquet game with the Queen of Hearts.

Take your young audiences on this enchanting trip to Wonderland; it's an experience they will long remember.

Alice in Wonderland Cast

Madison Truesdell is extremely proud to be participating in Little Theater's rendition of "Alice in Wonderland." Madison's love for the theater started in the 7th grade production of "June is Fading". She furthered her acting career by landing roles in Clayton Opera House's production of "Frozen" and Little Theater's production of "A Christmas Carol."

*Every Adventure
Requires a first step*

Carsen Fannon is 15 years old in 9th grade. She has been acting in plays and musicals since she was 4 years old. Outside of theatre she enjoys singing, reading, and hanging out with friends. She is overjoyed to have been a part of this production and to have worked with the amazing people taking part in the play.

Leon Kelsey attends Case Middle school and is in 7th grade. He will be 13 this December and has been doing Musicals since the age of 9. He has had many roles, but most notably he has starred as Simba in "Lion King, Jr" and as Humpty Dumpty in "Through the Looking Glass." Leon is trained in both song and dance. This is the first play for the young man that aspires to be actor. He stars as the White Rabbit.

Bryan Castor has worked with Little Theatre of Watertown for a little over 6 years performing many duties to include sound and light tech, stage crew, set building/design, stage manager and took in his first swing at acting in 2018 as Radar in Little's production of M*A*S*H. He has portrayed Keith in lovesick/Almost Maine, Deadpool in Superheroes: WGPCOR, and Topper in A Christmas Carol. Now Bryan now takes on the role of The Caterpillar for Little's production of Alice in Wonderland. Bryan would like to thank all of his friends and family for their support and guidance.

Johanna Probst is a Junior at Immaculate Heart Central School and has been studying dance since she was 3 years old. She has performed in ballet versions of Beauty and the Beast, Cinderella, and Alice in Wonderland, typically cast as a villain or comic relief. Johanna has also performed in school productions of Mamma Mia! and Aladdin. An avid reader, Johanna hopes to complete her first novel by the time she graduates high school and wishes to thank her large family for their support.

Shannon Lashway This is Shannon's first show since 2017, she has played the roles of Cat in the Hat in Suessical in 2016 and one of the Step Sisters in Rodger's and Hammerstein's Cinderella in 2017. Shannon has also helped out with Hair and makeup for her high school productions (2015-2019) also while performing in some as well (2015-2017)

Evicka Ottati is very excited to join the Little Theater of Watertown as the Queen of Hearts. This is her second involvement in a production of Alice in Wonderland as she has portrayed the March Hare in a musical adaptation before. Evicka previously appeared several times on stage at the Roxy Regional Theater in Clarksville, TN. Like most performers, she has had to wear many hats to make productions come to life. She has acted, built sets, worked backstage, as well as on the lighting crew. When not in the theater or studying, Evicka is writing her first novel and co-writing a musical set to hit the stage next year.

Emileigha Montondo is excited to be a part of this production of 'Alice in Wonderland'! She has been acting for four years, and earlier this year, appeared in was the production of 'Footloose!' for IRCSD. And appeared in 'A Christmas Carol' as Glinda Cratchit. Outside of acting, she plays viola, and sings in her school choir! She would like to thank the directors for all the hard work, and her family and friends for supporting her through the long journey.

Charlotte Banister This is Charlotte's first role in a theatre production. She is currently a freshman in High-school and is a part of theater class and drama club. Charlotte thanks her parents for their dedication to theater and showing her the way.

Nevaeh Kelsey is nearly 14 years old and has done musicals and plays since the age of 8. She has played Rafiki in Lion King Jr twice, and the White Queen in Alice through the looking glass. Nevaeh is in 9th grade at Watertown Highschool and will graduate in 2026. She plans to graduate college and pursue a career in Art (animation), or a career that helps animals.
